I am the Light of the World

words Jim Strathdee 1967; music: Jim Strathdee 1967

*When the song of the angels is stilled,
when the star in the sky is gone,
when the kings and the shepherds have found their way home,
the work of Christmas is begun:*

*refrain: "I am the light of the world!
You people come and follow me!"
If you follow and love you'll learn the mystery of what you were meant to do and be.*

*To find the lost and lonely one,
to heal the broken soul with love
to feed the hungry children with warmth and good food,
to feel the earth below the sky above!*

(refrain)

*To free the prisoner from all chains,
to make the powerful care,
to rebuild the nations with strength of good will,
to see God's children everywhere!*

(refrain)

*To bring hope to every task you do,
to dance at baby's new birth,
to make music in an old person's heart,
and sing to the colours of the earth!*

(refrain)

Will You Come and See the Light

Words: Brian Wren 1989, Music: Traditional Scottish melody, Arranged by Valerie Ruddle 1993

*Will you come and see the light from the stable door?
It is shining newly bright, though it shone before.
It will be your guiding star, it will show you who you are;
will you hide, or decide to meet the light?*

*Will you step into the light that can free the slave?
It will stand for what is right, it will heal and save.
By the pyramids of greed there's a longing to be freed;
will you hide, or decide to meet the light?*

*Will you tell about the light in the prison cell?
Though its shackled out of sight, it is shining well.
When the truth is cut and bruised, and the innocent abused,
will you hide, or decide to meet the light?*

*Will you join the hope, alight in the young girl's eyes,
of the mighty put to flight by a baby's cries?
When the lowest and the least are the foremost at the feast,
will you hide, or decide to meet the light?*

*Will you travel by the light of the babe new born?
In the candle at night there's a gleam of dawn,
and the darkness all about is too dim to put it out:
will you hide, or decide to meet the light.*
